CITY NOTES

MEET SATURDAY.—The directors of the Albright Memorial library will hold their annual meeting Saturday.

SERVICES THIS EVENING.—There will be services this evening in the First Presbyterian church at 7.15 o'clock.

BUSINESS MEETING.—This evening at 7.30 o'clock, the annual business meeting of All Souls' Universalist church will be held.

EMBROIDERY CLASS.—The Embroidery class at the Young Women's Christian association will meet at 12 and 3 o'clock on Wednesday.

PAY DAYS.—The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western paid yesterday at the Scranton shaft and the employees of the car shops will be paid today.

SCURF AND SMOKER.—The Scranton Lodge of Elks will conduct a scurf, followed by a smoker at the club rooms, on Franklin avenue, tonight. The game will start promptly at 10.30 o'clock.

A BIG AUDIENCE.—The following was received by Manager Harvey Long, of the Lyceum, last night, from John D. Mishler, manager of the theater at Reading: "Second engagement of 'The Sorrows of Satan' here tonight. All coupon tickets sold before 7 o'clock. Fourteen hundred and seventy-two persons present.

NON SUPPORT OF WIFE.—Alexander Grady, of 49 Emmet street, was yesterday committed to the county jail by Alderman W. S. Millar, on the charge of non support, preferred by Mary Grady, his wife.

BOOKKEEPERS' CLUB.—The following officers have been elected for the year 1900: President, D. W. Wagner; vice president, James Smith; secretary, Professor E. A. Crittendon; treasurer, D. I. Davies.

ORGAN RECITAL.—The programme of Professor Pennington's fourteenth organ recital, which is to be found in another column, is made of numbers which he will bring out for the first time in this city, the most noteworthy being the Wagner transcriptions.

ANNUAL PEW RENTING.—The annual pew renting at the Penn Avenue Baptist church took place last night and a large number of the pews were taken for the coming year. A large amount was also received in premiums for the more desirable sittings.

VIADUCT ORDINANCE SIGNED. Mayor Moir has Attached His Signature to It.

Mayor Moir's first official act yesterday morning was the affixing of his signature to the viaduct ordinance, and all that now remains is for the public to vote yes or no on the proposition.

While the mayor himself is not in favor of erecting a viaduct on the south side of the street, as provided by the ordinance, he nevertheless believes that the people should be given a chance to vote for themselves on the matter.

FIFTIETH ANNUAL MEETING. Held by the Congregation of the First Presbyterian Church.

The fiftieth annual meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church was held in the church last evening and was very largely attended.

E. P. Kingsbury was elected chairman and W. J. Hand was chosen as secretary. The reports of the various societies connected with the church were presented by the officers and showed all of them to be in a very flourishing condition.

The following financial report was presented by the treasurer, F. D. Watts:

Cash on hand per annual report, $ 25 From pew rents and premiums, 5,200 07 From subscriptions for current expenses, 1,299 45 From Sabbath collections, evenings, 62 97

Total receipts, $6,827 74 Total disbursements, 2,519 48 Cash on hand, 4,308 26

The budget for the coming year, similar in most respects to that of last year, was presented and adopted, after which the following members were elected to serve as trustees for two years: Isaac Post, F. K. Tracy and John P. Snyder.

The annual renting of pews then took place, A. W. Dickson acting as auctioneer. Over $500 was secured in premiums for desirable sittings before the regular letting of pews began.

Almost all of the pews were rented to those who occupied them last year, and a number of new sittings were secured by many.

The meeting was one of the most largely attended and interesting in the history of the church.

JOHN O'BOYLE KILLED. Former Resident of This City Fell to His Death in New York.

Word reached this city yesterday that John O'Boyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Boyle, of 234 North Everett avenue, and himself formerly a resident of this city, was killed on Monday afternoon by falling from the ninth story of a skyscraper in course of erection at the corner of Broadway and Cedar street, New York.

The unfortunate man was employed as a structural iron worker, and fell headlong into the midst of the passing crowd, every bone in his body being broken.

Mr. O'Boyle was twenty-four years old, and is survived by a wife living in Newark, his father and mother and the following brothers, all of this city: Thomas, Patrick, Michael, Edward, Martin and Hugh, Patrick and Thomas left the city last evening and will bring the remains here today.

ELM PARK CHURCH. Fourteenth Organ Concert.

The fourteenth concert in the series of organ recitals given by Mr. J. Alfred Pennington in Elm Park church will occur Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Aethia Turnbull, soprano, of Baltimore, will assist. Admission, silver offering.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied by a photograph, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.

Sir: What is the matter of me? "The eternal reward" has not come yet. I was a member of the first select council of the city of Scranton for two years. Colonel Hitchcock and I wrote the first charter. I paid the enrollment tax, say $40, or thereabouts, gave my check for the city bell which hangs in the court house and took city orders at par which were at the market rate of 90. It is true I have had some minor honors since, but please not to forget the other and greater.

A little reminiscence. Representatives of Providence opposed the governor's suggestion to the legislature. I promised that if they would withdraw their opposition and they wished to withdraw from the city the next year I would sign a petition to the legislature, if the Providence people asked it, for an act to withdraw. This was subsequently charged against me that I did not keep my promise. The answer to the wis, was not asked. Dr. Roberts took his seat in council and no better ever served. The city bonds are now at par at a low rate of interest.

SCHOOL BOY'S LEG CRUSHED BY A CAR

ACCIDENT TO FIFTEEN-YEAR OLD ANTHONY REYNOLDS.

While on His Way Home from Night School in Company with His Sister and a Number of School Mates, He Attempts to Board Front End of a Car on Carbon street, Misses His Footing and Falls Beneath the Wheels—Necessary to Amputate Leg Near Knee.

Anthony Reynolds, a 15-year-old Sand Banks boy, was run over by a trolley car on Carbon street last night, and had his left leg so badly crushed that it was necessary to amputate it just below the knee.

In company with a group of boys and girls, he was returning home from night school at St. John's hall, about 9 o'clock. When they reached Carbon street an outward bound Peckville car came along and a number of the boys ran along with it jumping on and off the front and rear platforms.

Reynolds had attempted to get on the front end as the car was passing under the bridge and, it is supposed, missed his footing in the darkness and fell. His left leg extended beneath the car and was run over by both wheels.

Conductor Scott and Motorman George Davis, with the assistance of some of the passengers, got the boy aboard the car and hurried him to the Lackawanna hospital. It was found that the left leg was crushed to a pulp between the ankle and knee, and that amputation near the knee would be necessary. The operation was performed by Dr. A. J. Connell, assisted by Dr. W. Busch.

Although a thin, weak-looking boy, he stood the pain with remarkable fortitude and seemed only to worry over the possibility of his mother being allowed into the operating room. Once when he woke for an instant from the opiate-induced sleep he heard to mumble "Don't let ma in." His sister Kate, a year older than himself, was one of the group returning from school. Fortunately she was some distance in the rear of the car when the accident occurred and did not witness it. She was sent from seeing him until after he was cared for at the hospital.

The boy worked in the Diamond breaker during the day and is said by the neighbors to be a well behaved, ambitious little fellow, and a great favorite with all the young people of the neighborhood. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds, of 109 Anthony street. His father is employed as a conductor on the Diamond branch of the Lackawanna road.

FUNERAL OF J. S. KAUFFMAN. Services at the Home and Interment in Dunmore Cemetery.

The funeral services of the late John S. Kauffman were conducted yesterday afternoon at the residence, 517 Prescott avenue. Rev. Luther H. Waring, of Grace Lutheran church, assisted by Rev. Scheidt, of Allentown, officiated at the services, following which the remains were taken to Dunmore cemetery, where they were interred.

A choir composed of John T. Watkins, David Peterson, Nellie Drake and Margaret Palmer sang several anthems in splendid style.

The funeral was a very large one and in the house there were many and plentiful evidences of the esteem in which the departed had been held.

Beautiful floral pieces were sent by many of the friends and noticeable among them were those from the Colliery Engineer and from the employees and firm of Jonas Long's Sons' store, at which latter place Mr. Kauffman was employed.

The pallbearers were Edward Redway, John Marquette, Richard Brader, Matthew Stipp, J. J. Wagonhurst, and Joseph Speicher, D. S. Plickes and Dr. William Spitzer were the flower bearers.

COMPANY L INSPECTED. Major Millar Examines Another Company of the Thirteenth.

Company L, of the Thirteenth regiment, was last night given an examination by Major W. S. Millar, inspector of the Third brigade. It was subjected to the same sort of inspection as Company K, which went through the mill Monday night.

The accounts and weapons of the men were closely scrutinized and they were then put through the manual of arms, the setting-up exercises and guard duty, following which the commissioned and non-commissioned officers were given an examination by the inspector.

This company is in the Third battalion and is captained by W. A. Raub, D. W. Davis and R. W. Cooper are the first and second lieutenants. Tonight Company B, led by Captain Kanbeck, will be inspected.

COMMISSIONERS FIX SALARIES. Amount to Be Annually Expended in Clerk Hire.

The county commissioners have fixed the salaries of their clerks as follows: W. G. Danico, $1,500; E. E. Robinson, $1,000; John P. Mahon, $90; P. W. Kitchin, $80; John Van Bergen, Jr., $70; Edward Francis, $50; George Heister, $50; A. E. Jones, $34.

The salaries of the old clerks remain the same. The total for clerk hire is now $3,500. Formerly it was $4,250.

On account of the inability of the commissioners to agree nothing has been done in the matter of appointing a jail physician, janitor, custodian of the court house grounds, and elevator man. Dr. J. P. Sultry is spoken of as a likely successor to Dr. William Donne as jail physician. There are a score of applicants for the other places.

To the Members of the Republican City Committee. The members of the Republican City committee will meet at the Central Republican club rooms, Price Building, Washington avenue, Thursday, Jan. 12, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of arranging primaries for the nomination of two members of the board of six school controllers.

(Signed) W. S. Millar, Chairman.

DIED. CAFFREY.—In Scranton, Jan. 9, 1900, M'Alene Caffrey, aged 2 years and 6 months. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in Cathedral cemetery.

What a Little Faith Did FOR MRS. ROCKWELL.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 6,585.]

"I was a great sufferer from female weakness and had no strength. It was impossible for me to attend to my household duties. I had tried everything and many doctors, but found no relief.

"My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did; before using all of one bottle I felt better. I kept on with it and to my great surprise I am cured. All who suffer from female complaints should give it a trial."—Mrs. ROCKWELL, 1305 S. DIVISION ST., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

From a Grateful Newark Woman. "When I wrote to you I was very sick, had not been well for two years. The doctors did not seem to help me, and one said I could not live three months. I had womb trouble, falling, ulcers, kidney and bladder trouble. There seemed to be such a drawing and burning pain in my bowels that I could not rest anywhere. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash and following your advice, I feel well again and stronger than ever. My bowels feel as if they had been freed from their many troubles. Thank you for your help. I remain, L. G., 74 ANN ST., NEWARK, N. J."

THE APPOINTMENTS MADE. Judge Alfred Darte Has His Say About Them.

The appointments of Register Mainwaring were yesterday approved by Judge Alfred Darte, of the orphans court. Owing to the unexpected opposition of Judge Darte, Mr. Mainwaring was compelled to make some changes in his original list. The appointments as confirmed are:

Chief deputy register and second assistant clerk of the orphans court—Robert P. Robinson, salary $2,000. Deputy register and first assistant clerk of the orphans court—John L. Potteiger, salary $2,500.

Third assistant clerk—David Linskill, salary $1,500. Under this arrangement the name of Charles B. Smith does not appear. Register Mainwaring, however, will keep Mr. Smith in the office and pay him out of his own salary. Having once engaged Mr. Smith Register Mainwaring feels that he is in duty bound to take care of him, notwithstanding that he will be forced to pay him out of his own pocket. Mr. Smith was engaged at a salary of $900 a year.

The appointments were made under the act of reorganization, which provides that the salaries of clerks, who are all styled assistant clerks of the orphans court, are $2,500, $2,000 and $1,400 or $1,300 per year in the aggregate over what was formerly paid in the register's office for help.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

RECOVERING HIS HEALTH. John Kneirim, of Petersburg, is Now Recovering from Wounds.

John Kneirim, of Paul street, Petersburg, who was stabbed and badly wounded by William Bowman last Saturday night, is daily making progress towards the recovery of his health.

He is getting along very well, and although he is not entirely free of danger, still strong hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Thomas Eynon, of 322 South Main avenue, who has been an invalid for the past nine years, died at 11 o'clock last night. Deceased had been falling for the past three weeks and the end came very suddenly. She was 47 years of age and was born in Abercraze, South Wales. Her maiden name was Jane Leysnon and she was a sister of Thomas Eynon, who was a former resident of Pittston. Mrs. Eynon came to America in 1832 with her parents and located in Pottsville. She was married to Mr. Eynon in Beech Woods in 1840, at the age of 19 years, she was married to Mr. Eynon, who survives her, together with two sons and one daughter. A. B. ANNUAL MEETINGS OF CITY'S BANKERS

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS FOR YEAR CHOSEN.

All of the Banks Had a Very Prosperous Year, and They Are in Excellent Condition—Old Boards of Directors Re-elected—Some of Them Have Already Met and Organized and Others Will Meet Within a Few Days—Those Who Direct Affairs of Various Banks.

The First, Third and Traders' National banks and the Dime Savings and Discount banks held their annual meetings yesterday, and the County Savings bank and the Scranton Savings bank also held meetings recently. The reports read at all of these meetings showed a very gratifying condition of these institutions. All enjoyed a prosperous year.

The First National bank re-elected this board of directors: George L. Dickson, George B. Smith, W. R. Storrs, W. F. Hallett, W. W. Scranton, John Jermyn, T. F. Torrey, J. A. Linn. They will meet Saturday morning, Jan. 13, for reorganization, and elect officers. The old officers, Charles A. Linn, president; George L. Dickson, vice president, and Isaac Post, cashier, will probably be re-elected.

The Third National bank stockholders, at their meeting yesterday re-elected these directors: William Connell, Alfred Thomas, Thomas H. Watkins, Henry Bell, Jr., George H. Catlin, J. Bon Dimmick, James Archibald, Luther Keller and J. L. Connell. The officers are: William Connell, president; Henry Bell, Jr., vice president; William H. Peck, cashier. Out of a possible 2,000 shares 1,308 were voted. A meeting will be held by them next Monday to reorganize and elect officers. During the year $50,000 has been added to this bank's surplus.

THE TRADERS' BANK. At the Traders' National bank, the board of directors, was also re-elected. It consists of J. T. Porter, Charles F. Matthews, Hon. W. W. Watson, Joseph J. Jermyn, I. A. Finch, M. S. Kemmerer, L. W. Morse, Charles Schlager, C. E. Chittenden, J. H. Steel, E. J. Robinson, E. S. Jones.

J. T. Porter was again elected president; Hon. W. W. Watson, vice president, and F. L. Phillips, cashier. The D. e. bank stockholders met yesterday afternoon, and after an address made by the president, Charles Du Pont Breck, in which the general prosperity and most advantageous year of the institution was briefly reviewed, elected as the board of directors: Charles DuPont Breck, Reese G. Brooks, A. L. Francois, E. J. Lynett, George B. Jermyn, Solomon Goldsmith, Hon. W. J. Lewis, M. H. Dale, C. H. Schadt, David Spruiks, J. W. Garney, C. S. Souman, James Plich. These gentlemen then held a short session and organized by re-electing Charles DuPont Breck, president; Reese G. Brooks, vice president, and E. J. Lynett, secretary.

The Scranton Savings bank stockholders, Monday afternoon met, and like all the other banks, re-elected the board of directors, who will meet Saturday morning to reorganize. The directors elected were: S. B. Price, George H. Catlin, James Archibald, Frank M. Spencer, A. B. Blair, James W. Oakford, William F. Kiesel, W. D. Kennedy and F. L. Peck.

PROSPEROUS YEAR. This bank has had a very prosperous year, the cashier submitting a report, which showed that the depositors had received over $10,500 in interest during the year, and also that the usual ten per cent. dividend to stockholders had been paid and $25,000 added to the surplus account.

The County Savings Bank and Trust company stockholders met Jan 1, and re-elected as the board of directors: Hon. L. A. Watres, William F. Hallett, Orlando S. Johnson, Edward P. Kingsbury, August Robinson, Everett Warren, John P. Kelly. The officers chosen were Hon. L. A. Watres, president; O. S. Johnson, vice president and A. H. Christy, cashier.

GREEN RIDGE. There will be an entertainment in the Guild rooms of the Church of the Good Shepherd Saturday evening, under the direction of Willard B. How. Mrs. R. C. Ward, of Sanderson avenue, is visiting friends in Moosic. Mrs. William Stower, of Dickson avenue, is visiting her mother in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith, of Monsey avenue, entertained a number of friends last evening. Ground was broken yesterday at Dickson avenue, adjoining Hazzard meat market, for the new building to be occupied by the Telephone exchange. The dimensions of the building are 17x30, two stories high. The ground floor will be used for a general repair shop and the second story for the exchange proper. Camp No. 25, Patriotic Order Sons of America, held an interesting meeting last evening in Masonic hall, Dickson avenue. District President O. S. Lutz installed the officers of Camp No. 25, Patriotic Order Sons of America, of Dunmore, last evening. Thursday evening he will visit Camp No. 74, Moosic, for the same purpose.

Twentieth Century

It doesn't make any difference to us whether it is the Nineteenth or Twentieth Century, we were busy last year and expect to be busier this year. We are in the midst of stock taking now, and when through look out for bargains in odds and ends and parts of sets. We dare not allow them to accumulate, as we need the room.
